Resolution on nomination committee (item 14)

It is proposed by the nomination committee that it shall consist of the chairman of the board and three members, each appointed by one of the three owners with the largest number of voting rights. The selection of the three largest shareholders shall be made on the basis of the share register of the Company kept by Euroclear Sweden AB as of the last banking day in September 2019. However if it becomes known to the Company that two or more of the largest shareholders are controlled by the same physical person(s) (or the same physical person(s) holds shares in the Company both directly and through a Company controlled by him) then all such shareholders shall be considered to comprise one shareholder for the purposes of the participation in the nomination committee. At the earliest convenient date after the end of September 2019 the Chairman of the Board shall contact the three shareholders with the largest number of voting rights, as determined above, and request that they each appoint a member to the nomination committee. If any of the three shareholders with the largest number of voting rights decline their right to appoint a member to the nomination committee, the shareholder with the next largest number of voting rights shall be provided with the opportunity to appoint a member. If such shareholder also declines its right to appoint a member to the nomination committee or does not respond to the request within a reasonable time then the nomination committee shall be constituted by the remaining members. Unless the nomination committee members decide otherwise, the chairman of the nomination committee shall be the member, appointed by the shareholder with the largest number of voting rights in the Company. If a member leaves the nomination committee before its work is completed and if the nomination committee considers that there is a need to replace this member, then the nomination committee shall appoint a new member.

The nomination committee shall prepare the following proposals to be submitted to the 2020 Annual General Meeting for resolution:

- a) proposal regarding chairman of the Annual General Meeting,
- b) proposal regarding the number of board members,
- c) proposal regarding election of board members, deputies and chairman of the board of directors,
- d) proposal regarding directors' fees for each of the directors and deputies as well as remuneration for committee work,
- e) proposal regarding election of auditors,
- f) proposal regarding auditor's fees, and
- g) proposal regarding nomination committee.

No remuneration shall be paid to the members of the nomination committee. The nomination committee may charge the Company reasonable costs for travelling and investigations.

The Nomination Committee in Auriant Mining AB (publ)

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS' PROPOSAL FOR A RESOLUTION ON GUIDELINES FOR REMUNERATION TO EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT

The Board of Directors of Auriant Mining AB (publ) proposes that the meeting resolves on guidelines for remuneration to the executive management of the Auriant Mining group ("Group"), containing the following:

The guidelines shall apply to remuneration and other employment terms and conditions for the managing director and other members of the Group's management ("Group Management") and shall apply until the Annual General Meeting of 2020.

Guidelines

The guidelines shall apply to all employment contracts entered into after the meeting's resolution and, in those cases where amendments are made to the existing terms and conditions, after that point in time. The Company shall aim to offer total remuneration, which is reasonable and competitive, based on the circumstances in the country in question and shall also be allowed to offer a so-called "Sign on" bonus in order to recruit the best personnel. The remuneration shall vary in relation to the performance of the individual and the Group. It is proposed that the total remuneration to the Group Management shall consist of the components stated below.

Fixed salary

The fixed salary ("Base Salary") shall be adjusted to the market and shall be based on responsibility, competence and performance. The fixed salary shall be reviewed every year.

Variable remuneration

Variable remuneration may include:

- a) monthly variable remuneration, which shall depend on the executive's individual performance;
- b) bonuses, including annual bonuses and one-time bonuses, which shall relate to the Company's return on production results, reserves and production goals, and specific goals within each executive's area of responsibility; and
- c) share and share-price related incentive programs.

The maximum amount of variable remuneration paid in cash shall not exceed one annual Base Salary of the executive in question.

Long-term incentives

The board of directors intends to assess, on a regular basis, the need of long-term incentive programs that are to be proposed to the general meeting.

Insurable benefits

Old-age pension, healthcare benefits and medical benefits shall, if applicable, be provided in a manner that reflects the regulations and practices in the home country. If possible, pension plans shall be defined contribution plans. In individual cases, depending on the tax and/or social insurance laws applying to the individual in question, other adjusted pension plans or pension solutions may be approved.

Other benefits

The Company shall be able to provide individual members of the Group Management or the entire Group Management with other benefits. These benefits shall not constitute a substantial portion of the total remuneration. The benefits shall, in addition, correspond to normal benefits provided on the market.

Termination and severance pay

Notice of termination of employment shall be no more than twelve months upon termination initiated by the Group and no more than six months upon termination initiated by a member of the management. Severance pay may only be paid out upon termination by the Group or when a member of the Group Management resigns due to a significant change of his/her working conditions, which means the he/she cannot perform adequately.

Derogation from the guidelines

The board of directors shall be entitled to derogate from these guidelines if special reasons exist in an individual case.
